

Green Chain Interactive Map

From the riverside at Thamesmead, Erith and the Thames Barrier to Crystal Palace Park and Dulwich Park

A network of footpaths link together many of the open spaces in South East London. This is one of the key strategic walks within the capital and it also links with other paths to create the Capital Ring - a continuous circular walk around London within 10 miles of Big Ben.

CLICK HERE FOR
1 1 1
GREEN CHAIN WALK
with colour-coded route points
GREEN CHAIN WALK
+ CAPITAL RING

To view more details

Simply click on individual icons in the key below for layers of more information

Click for information on the following

- |   |                            |
|---|----------------------------|
| Ancient monument                              | Camping and caravanning    |
| Angling                                       | Farmland                   |
| Area of special scientific interest           | Golf Course                |
| Area of wildlife interest                     | Grassland / Common         |
| Athletics track                               | Horse riding               |
| Boating lake                                  | Parklands / Gardens        |
| Bowling green                                 | Public playing fields      |
| Building of architectural / historic interest | Putting green              |
| Cafe / Refreshments                           | Sports ground              |
| Circular Walks                                | Tennis court               |
| Mobile Cafe (summer only)                     | Local Nature Reserve (LNR) |
| Children's playground                         | Railway Stations           |
| Children's Zoo                                | Bus stops                  |